HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

King Lifting Ltd is dedicated to providing the highest possible standards so far as is reasonably practicable, the health, safety, and wellbeing of our employees whilst they are at work and that of others who may be affected by our undertakings, and compliance with all the relevant legislation.

The Senior Leadership Team has established the organisation's mission, vision, and values, taken into consideration our context, the needs and expectations of our relevant interested parties, and the business objectives. These are reflected in our strategic business plans and assessments.

The Senior Leadership Team's leadership and commitment are vital to ensure the successful implementation of our OH&S management system and ensuring it remains effective. Therefore, the Senior Leadership will take responsibility for the effectiveness of the organisation's OH&S management system and ensure that its intended outcomes are achieved.

King Lifting is proud of its good health and safety reputation and safe practices / procedures. It is King Lifting's policy to endeavour we operate to these standards continuously and will implement and operate fully ISO 45001:2018 specified requirements for an occupational health and safety (OH&S) management system standard through certification and annual review.

To ensure the principles of health and safety are clearly understood throughout King Lifting we are committed to:

- Ensuring that there are arrangements put into place for the effective planning, development, and review of this health and safety policy
- Ensuring that appropriate systems are developed and maintained for the effective communication of health and safety matters throughout the organisation
- Protecting the safety and health of all employees by preventing work-related injuries, ill health, disease, dangerous occurrences, and incidents
- Complying with relevant health and safety laws and regulations, voluntary programmes, collective agreements on health and safety and other requirements to which we subscribe, such as Network Rail requirements
- Ensuring that employees and their representatives are consulted and encouraged to participate actively in all elements of Health and Safety Management
- Continually improving the performance of Health and Safety Management
- Providing the necessary information, instruction, and training to employees and others, including temporary employees to ensure their competence with respect to health and safety
- Devoting the necessary resources in the form of finance, equipment, personnel, and time to ensure the health and safety of employees. Expert help will be sought where the necessary skills are not available within the organisation
- Liaising and working with all necessary persons to ensure health and safety and will also ensure that adequate arrangements are also in place for ensuring the health and safety of visitors
- Ensure workers' wellness / wellbeing

Consistent with the organisation's OH&S policy, the intended outcomes of an OH&S management system include:

- Continual improvement of OH&S performance
- Fulfil legal and other requirements such as Network Rail etc.
- Eliminate hazards and reduce OH&S risks
- Continual improvement of the OH&S management system
- Consultation with and participation of workers, and, where they exist, workers' representatives
- Achievement of OH&S objectives

King Lifting will take all reasonable steps to implement, monitor, and maintain safe plant, substances, equipment, working environments, and working practices within the organisation. We will continuously improve our health and safety management arrangements in order to protect employees and others from risks to their health, safety, and wellbeing whilst engaged in work related activities. We recognise that safety is the responsibility of everyone and is not just a function of management. Employees have specific responsibilities to take reasonable care of themselves and others that could be affected by their activities and to co-operate to achieve the standards required.
